

Write the correct word in the blanks to show directions on an animal body:

 Word Bank (Posterior, Ventral, Dorsal, Anterior)

Write the correct word in the BOXES to identify the correct SYMMETRY:  Word Bank (bilateral, radial, asymmetrical, spherical)
Ball-shaped, the body can be divided into two identical parts by any plane passing through the center.	The body can be divided into two identical halves by any plane that passes through the longitudinal axis.	The body can be divided into two identical halves (mirror images) by only one specific plane passing through the longitudinal axis.	The body has no definite shape and cannot be divided into two identical halves.

1. Invertebrates and vertebrates belong to what Kingdom?
2. Invertebrates =
3. Vertebrates =
4. Invertebrates make up what percentage of animals?